1. We* agree to be bound by JN Cayman's Terms and Conditions (Personal). The authority is to remain in force until any one of us shall have expressly revoked it by notice in writing delivered to you at the above mentioned branch and it shall be revoked by death of any one or more of us, where after, the signature of survivors may be accepted as sufficient discharge for balances on this account or any part of such balance, in accordance with the withdrawal instructions.

2. We* agree that either/ any joint Member may operate the joint account(s), including but not limited to deposits, withdrawals and addition of another Member to the account(s). However, written instructions from each Member, or his duly appointed representative, is required to close a joint account(s) and/or remove the name of a joint account holder(s) from the said joint account(s).

3. We* agree that in the event a Power of Attorney is granted by either/ any joint Member, JN Cayman's may also refuse to honour any transaction, made by the attorney unless their appointment regarding the joint account(s) has been agreed upon in writing by all account holders in a form satisfactory to JN Cayman's.

4. We further acknowledge that in the event of the death of any one or more joint account holders, the surviving account holder(s) shall be entitled to all funds standing to the credit of the joint account. The foregoing does not limit any rights JN Cayman may have regarding the funds in the account that arise out of any lien, charge, pledge, security interest, security agreement, or any right of set-off, right to combine and/or consolidate accounts, any counterclaim or any other right JN Cayman may have whatsoever in respect of the funds."

5. We authorize you to withdraw as per instruction below for any amount whether Principal or interest, which may be outstanding on our joint credit from such account.
